INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETION OF PROXY

1. Each Voting Creditor has the right to appoint a person (who need not be a Voting Creditor) to attend, act and vote for and on behalf of the Voting Creditor and such right may be exercised by inserting in the space provided the name of the person to be appointed.
2. If no other person is named as proxy in the space provided above, Gary Powroznik of the Monitor, or such other representative of the Monitor as Mr. Powroznik may designate, shall be deemed to be appointed as proxyholder for the Voting Creditor, with power of substitution.
3. If a representative of the Monitor is appointed or is deemed to be appointed as proxyholder, this Proxy will be voted FOR approval of the Plan.
4. If this Proxy is not dated in the space provided, it shall be deemed to be dated on the date it is received by the Monitor.
5. This Proxy must be signed by the Voting Creditor or by the Voting Creditor's attorney duly authorized in writing or, if the Voting Creditor is a corporation, by a duly authorized officer or attorney of the corporation with an indication of the title of such officer or attorney.
6. Valid proxies executed by the Voting Creditor and bearing or deemed to bear a later date shall revoke this Proxy. If more than one valid proxy for the same Voting Creditor and bearing or deemed to bear the same date are received with conflicting instructions, such proxies will be treated as disputed proxies and shall not be counted.

7. This Proxy must be sent to the Monitor by mail, courier, facsimile or email (in PDF format) at the address provided below so that it is received by the Monitor no later than 5:00p.m. (Vancouver time) on Wednesday, March 2, 2016.
